

NEWS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – JUNE 23, 2009

TEAM U.S.A MEN'S FAST-PITCH TEAM IN SALEM THIS WEEKEND

Some of the best fast-pitch softball players in the world will be in Salem this Friday and Saturday as the James I. Moyer complex plays host to the Team U.S.A. Men's Fast Pitch team for two days of fence-swinging action.

Team U.S.A. will face a team of local Salem All-Stars on Friday night and then tangle with a nationally ranked team from Pennsylvania, the Keating Fitness Center.

The Salem All-Star team is loaded with a number of former high school and college stars from the area including Kelly Dampeer, Larry Bowles, Tommy Bayrer, Brent Sowers. Plus, Virginia Tech Head Softball Coach Scot Thomas and Roanoke College Head Coach Mike Mitchell are both leaving the dugout to suit up for the local stars.

TEAM U.S.A. FAST PITCH GAME SCHEDULE THIS WEEKEND AT THE MOYER

Friday, June 26	6pm – Team USA vs. Salem Local All-Stars 8pm – Team USA vs. Keatings Fitness Center (Pennsylvania) Nationally Ranked
Saturday, June 27	11am – Salem Local All-Stars vs. Keatings Fitness 6pm – Team USA vs. Salem Local All-Stars 8pm – Team USA vs. Keatings Fitness Center

General Admission - $5 person per day

Contact:

*Brad Epperley, Facility Manager
James I. Moyer Sports Complex
& Salem Kiwanis Field
540-375-4021 (Office)
540-389-5309 (Fax)
bepperley@salemva.gov*

*Mike Stevens
City of Salem
Communications Director
(540)375-4112 office
(540)353-2041 cell
mstevens@salemva.gov*